

Merry Christmas from all of us here at the Address Management Unit!

The Postcode is 60 - (1959-2019)

We have had a great time looking through the postcode archives during this anniversary year. Here are some of our favourite images, some of which we have shared this year on social media.

Powered by PAF

We recently made some changes to our website. You can now access Licensing and pricing information from the main menu on www.poweredbypaf.com.

If you're returning to complete your licence signup application, please visit our sign up page and scroll to the section called 'Customers Returning to Complete the Sign up Process' section. If you are having trouble accessing your details please contact us.

You could be a video star!

Earlier this year, we asked for your PAF® stories and you may have seen the videos that some of our customers appeared in during the postcode 60th anniversary week talking about PAF. If you missed them, you will have an opportunity to view them soon on www.poweredbypaf.com so watch out for the publication date on twitter and LinkedIn.

We would really like to produce some more films starring our customers talking about their PAF data experience and how it helps in their business. If you would like to be involved in taking part in our next campaign, please get in touch with us at: amu\_communications@royalmail.com

Don't like appearing on camera? Not a problem, you can submit your PAF story in writing. Tell us about your experiences either from a personal or professional point of view and how addressing has revolutionised your world!

All articles submitted will be considered, publication will be at our discretion, but all accepted articles will of course be attributed to the author. Please submit your articles to: amu\_communications@royalmail.com and we will be in touch.

Customer satisfaction

Our latest customer survey told us that 97% of our customers are satisfied with PAF and the service provided by AMU. We will be sending out our next customer survey in early 2020 and in the meantime, if you have any feedback or suggestions please contact us.
